

Hamasdegh PTA Weekly Newsletter

January 16, 2020

Dear Hamasdegh Parent,

What a wonderful beginning of a new year and back to school after winter break. First day back after the holidays was full of hustle and bustle. Upon arrival, all the students received communion in the church. Then, everyone gathered in the hall talking and catching up with each other after a 3-week hiatus, while enjoying a delicious breakfast served by PTA members and volunteers.

We cannot thank enough all of you who donated food and offered help setting up and serving breakfast and then cleaning up! We are indebted to you. Enjoy these pictures from Sunday.

Pre-K

About Me

Hello, my name is Kayane Tatarian. This is my first year teaching the pre-K class at Hamasdegh School. I was born in Syria and moved to Canada at age 12 and then met my husband and moved to the United States in 2014. I am a mother of 2: Kevork (4) and Tro (2). I studied Early Childcare Education. In our free time we like to go fishing; we also love to dance and sing.
