September 5, 2019

Dear Hamasdegh Parent,

The first day of school is only days away. Hamasdegh Armenian School will reconvene this Sunday, September 8th. A students' service and Holy Communion will be offered promptly at 9:30am, followed immediately by a breakfast served in the church hall, courtesy of the PTA. After breakfast, at around 11am, students will proceed to their new classrooms.

This Sunday is National Grandparents Day. PTA would like to recognize all our amazing Hamasdegh grandparents who have been a mainstay of our school community. Grandparents offer a link to our children's cultural heritage and family history. Grandparents are a valuable resource with so many stories and experiences from their own lives to share. To show our appreciation, we invite all grandparents to attend the back-to-school breakfast with their grandchild(ren)!
